China
 Ancient Chinese writings refer to a violent catastrophe that happened to the Earth. They report that the entire land was flooded. The water went up to the highest mountains and completely covered all the foothills. It left the country in desolate condition for years after.

One ancient Chinese classic called the "Hihking" tells the story of Fuh, whom the Chinese consider to be the father of their civilization. This history records that Fuh, his wife, three sons, and three daughters escaped a great flood. He and his family were the only people left alive on earth. After the great flood they repopulated the world.

An ancient temple in China has a wall painting that shows Fuh's boat in the raging waters. Dolphins are swimming around the boat and a dove with an olive branch in its beak is flying toward it.
